At the end of 2014 there were over 11,000 children in the custody of Oklahoma Department of Human Services. These children need a family that will give them safety and a nurturing environment where they can grow! Oklahoma is in dire need of foster homes. Being a foster parent isn't always easy, but families often say it is one of the most rewarding experiences in their lives!

BE A FOSTER PARENT!

Services to foster families include:
